

Alessandra Pellegrini
Director

Alessandra Pellegrini is an Italian fundraiser who specializes in working with cultural non-profit institutions. Alessandra has spent more than 30 years in fundraising and public relations for major Italian Cultural Institutions including Filarmonica della Scala, FAI (Fondo Ambiente Italiano) and currently she works with Fondazione Piccolo Teatro di Milano, Teatro d'Europa, Pinacoteca di Brera e Biblioteca Braidense and Museo del Cenacolo Vinciano. Moreover, she coordinated the creation and development of two American Charities: FOF (Friends of Fai) and IPDM (International Patrons of Duomo di Milano). Alessandra is also a Professor of Economics and Cultural Management at the Università del Sacro Cuore di Milano and at Accademia di Belle Arti Aldo Galli – IED COMO, and also collaborates with Sole24Ore and Università Commerciale Luigi Bocconi.